CHRISTINE BELL

Christine Bell is a dedicated tourism leader committed to advancing Manitoba's tourism industry through collaboration, partnership, and community development. She works with Indigenous communities, industry partners, and organizations to support sustainable tourism growth and authentic visitor experiences.

Passionate about Indigenous tourism, Christine believes it plays an important role in honouring culture, sharing stories, and creating economic opportunities that benefit communities across Manitoba.

She currently serves as General Manager of Long Plain First Nation's Wyndham Garden Winnipeg Airport and Microtel Inn & Suites Portage la Prairie, while also supporting operations for Sparrow Hotels. Christine is Red River Métis and a graduate of RRC Polytech and the American Hotel & Lodging Educational Institute.
