DARCIE GUARDERAS

Darcie Guarderas is a Cree-Métis leader with more than 30 years of senior-level experience in the Canadian tourism industry. As Co-Founder of Tansi Solutions, she brings deep expertise across product development, operations, marketing, and business development.

Widely respected for her mentorship and commitment to inclusive growth, Darcie has spent her career supporting Indigenous entrepreneurs, designing culturally informed training programs, and building meaningful partnerships between Indigenous and non-Indigenous stakeholders.

Her work is guided by a strong belief that Indigenous tourism must be grounded in community values, capacity, and authenticity—an approach that has earned her recognition as a trusted leader and advocate for sustainable, collaborative tourism development across Canada.
